

The Chairman of the International Investors Association of Georgia, Osman Chalishkan Mzhavanadze, held an online meeting with the Executive Director of the Georgian Business Association, Mr. Levan Vepkhvadze. During the meeting, the sides discussed the current problems posed by the pandemic to companies, important factors for attracting investment in the country, such as qualified staff and increased tariffs, opening training courses that will facilitate the availability of qualified staff, as well as the impact of electricity tariffs on the company. The parties also agreed to sign a memorandum of understanding and talked about the implementation of various joint projects in the future. The Chairman of the Association thanked Mr. Levan for their fruitful meeting.