

During the meeting, the parties discussed the problems created by the pandemic and ways to solve them, important factors in attracting new investments, such as qualified personnel and tax policy, the importance of the diagonal cumulation agreement. The parties also agreed on joint activities and activities in the future.