

During the meeting, the sides discussed the economic problems created in the background of the pandemic and the ways to solve them, the importance of attracting new investments and the role of mitigation of regulations for the continuation of active economic activity. Turkish Ziraat Bank currently has seven branches in Georgia and plans to open new ones in the future.