

On June 1, Osman Chalishkan Mjavanadze, Chairman of the International Investors Association of Georgia, held a working meeting with Ak-Air Georgia in an online format. During the meeting, the parties discussed the problems created by the pandemic and ways to solve them, the need to schedule a new flight in the direction of Tbilisi-Batumi-Trabzon / Trabzon-Batumi-Tbilisi due to the approaching summer tourism season and increase international flights.