

On July 29, 2010, the meeting was held with French investor Yann Ichbiah at International Investors Association office, who intends to build French restaurant and guest-house in Kobuleti and Kvartati. The meeting between French investor and General Secretary of the association was introductory. The construction is planned to begin in nearest future. As a result, the region will have guest-house and another food object in the form of French restaurant named Paris-Kobuleti.