

The 11th international exhibition of agro-food products and technologies "Agro Batumi 2023" was held in Batumi. The purpose of the Agro Batumi 2023 exhibition is to bring together international and local representatives actively involved in agriculture in one space, which will facilitate the exchange of information about innovations and the formation of new partnership relations.