

Business Conference concerning Poti Free Industrial Zone was held in Mumbai on February 22. The event was attended by business circles of India. The event was organized by “Rakia Georgia” and Indian Chamber of Commerce. Ministers of Economy and Sustainable Development and Finance, Vera Kobalia and Kakha Baindurashili respectively, made a presentation for the Indian businessmen and answered their questions. During the conference, it was announced that the largest delegation of Indian business union- Association of the chambers of commerce, will visit Georgia. Representatives of leading Indian companies will be amongst the members of the delegation. The Georgian Government will continue its business negotiations with the Indian side during the visit.