

On June 24, 2011, the representative of National Bank of Georgia visited IIA. The main goal of his visit was to get information on the structure of IIA and its member companies. In addition, the representative of National Bank organized outreach meetings with IIA member companies where he presented the project of National Bank which is centered on the activity promotion of international investors in Georgia.