

- 1. Initially, an interested person must accept a technical condition from Ltd “Socar Gas Ajara”, for which he must apply to the company and in written form give information about what types of equipment to be installed on object and output of the installed equipment.
- 2. When the user obtains the technical condition, gas installation project of the object is required.
- 3. After taking gas supply project, the consumer must submit a request to a licensed installation company for providing with the installation of the project works.
- 4. After the installation the person together with the agency which implements the installation works, have to make a request to the operation firm, for which the consumer must pay a fee of the natural gas connection. After the signing contract the person will be supplied by natural gas.
- 5. To make a demand for gas installation, it is necessary to have a responsible person in gas sector with an appropriate certificate.
- 6. The term of the gas installation project the works of natural gas connection is determined under the agreement of the parties (an agreement signed between the sides).