In Autonomous Republic of Adjara was created temporary regulatory committee, which will act according to the new "law upon actions Regulating Construction of local Importance"

Law
upon Actions Regulating Construction of Local Importance

In pursuant with the Law upon "Status of the Autonomous Republic of Adjara", Constitutional Law of Georgia and Constitution of the Autonomous Republic of Adjara, Presented Law shall stipulate the actions regulating Construction of Local Importance necessary for complete implementation of the demands of Normative Acts being subject to Law.

The objectives of this law is on territory of Autonomous Republic of Adjara, by this law in defined transition period to support regulating arrangements on local meaning construction

To create perfect, equal living and active environment conditions; development of territories and settlement by minimizing negative ascendance on economical and other activities, to use rationally territories and natural resources;

Create working and living conditions for settlement territories and get investments, region equal economical structure, infrastructural, social, ecological and cultural development;

For details please see attached file: