

The International Investors Association of Georgia was visited by the Lead Economist of “The World Bank South Caucasus Regional Office”, Mr. Rashmi Shankar together with other representatives. Mr. Rashmi is a Lead Economist of The World Bank South Caucasus Regional Office. The guests met the Secretary General of International Investors Association of Georgia. They talked about the Economic and Investment environment. The guests learned about the Association activities. They were mainly interested in development of textile business, existence of free economic zones in Georgia; the scale of the association members and how much business and investment fields depends on political changes. The representatives of the World Bank South Caucasus Regional Office expressed a great desire of collaboration.