

On 24 June, 2013, in Tbilisi was held the meeting of businessmen and representatives of government, organized by Georgian Employer's Association. The main topic for discussion was the adoption of amendments to the Labor Code of Georgia. The meeting was attended by Deputy of the Minister of Justice, Deputy of the Minister of Labor, Health and Social Protection, the Vice President of Georgian Employer's Association, representatives of business sector, the Chairman of International Investors Association and the Secretary General of IIA. There was discussed the issues about the several services for employers, their participation in negotiations of trade union, collaboration with social partners. After introductory, meeting changed into the kind of question and answers.