

A meeting with the representatives of the hotel industry was held at the International Investors Association of Georgia. Both parties discussed the problems in the hotel industry, the establishment of a safe and attractive tourist environment for local and international tourists in the face of the pandemic, and the essential importance of gradual easing of regulations. The Chairman of the Investors Association invited the guests to share information about the activities of the Association and member companies.