

On 23 June, the Association of Turkish Travel Agencies' (TÜRSAB) eastern Black Sea region representative council president Volkan Kantarcı, paid an honorary visit to the International Investors Association of Georgia. During the meeting, the sides discussed the potential of Adjara regional tourism, the current challenges of the pandemic in the tourism sector, the need for safety measures for tourists, the importance of air and land traffic between the two countries with the opening of the tourist season.