

On September 1, 2010 was held an auction by Ministry of Economy and Sustainable Development, where was sold the building with land and property on the territory of Batumi oil processing plant.

New owner of the named object became Batumi Petroleum, which paid 15 million USD.