Mr. Levan Varshalomidze, Business Ombudsman of Georgia Mr. Giorgi Pertaia and other officials and organizations. The main theme of the meeting was an introduction of private audit system. Changes concerning private auditors to be made in the Tax Code will be ready in the next few weeks. After Tax Code changes, an entrepreneur will decide himself whether to be examined by the Revenue Service or by an accredited private auditor. If business chooses the auditor, Revenue Service will recognize the conclusion and will not re-examine. In order to advance Tax Code, International Investors Association of Georgia continues active cooperation with the Business Ombudsman of Georgia and other government officials.
