

On May 21 of the current year, in the International Investors Association of Georgia, Giorgi Pertaia, the Tax Ombudsman of Georgia held a meeting with the representatives of IIA member and candidate member companies. Issues regarding production losses and obligatory bank guarantees for customs clearance were discussed during the meeting. Business Ombudsman stated that mentioned issues are being discussed in the Revenue Service and they will be resolved. Outreach meetings were also planned with IIA member companies for the nearest future.