

Zurab Pololikashvili - Minister of Georgian Economic Development and Levan Varshalomidze - Chairman of Government of Autonomous Republic of Adjara have met members of International Investors Association of Georgia. Talks have been related to future plans.

Levan Varshalomidze talked about existing investment environment in Adjara. With the help of Government of Autonomous Republic of Adjara a branch of Georgian Investment Agency Centre will be opened in Batumi.

Zurab Pololikashvili put emphasis on the project that he plans to carry out in the nearest future. Minister offered member businessmen of association to get involved in the project.

Experimental project aims at letting those Georgian businessmen who live outside Georgian border to make investments in their homeland.

