

On 12th of September, 2017 The Secretary General of International Investors Association of Georgia Osman Chalishkan met with the representatives of the company “Servotel” which is the world's Leading Consultancy in Global Hospitality & Real Estate Development. The sides talked about economic and tourism spheres in Georgia, they have also discussed plans of future cooperation in Business sphere, Secretary General of IIA provided all the information about IIA and its member companies to the Guests. The Company was founded in 1984 in London. Offices are located both in London Head Office and its Istanbul branch. Companies' main area activity is development of tourism in different countries. „Servotel” is oriented in the highest quality client services.