

The Chairman of the International Investors Association of Georgia and owner of "Adjara Textile" Mrs. Cemal Bilgingulluoglu opened a new enterprise in Poti, where 3000 people will be employed. „Adjara Textile " is a 100% export-oriented company that already cooperates with international companies such as Nike, Adidas, Puma, Lotto, Erma and products sewn in Georgia are exported to the international market. The company produces 10 000 000 units per annum, and the volume of production will be significantly increased by the introduction of new high-quality machinery. In the future, „Adjara Textile” will supply new products to big brands such as "New Balance" and "Under Armour". The enterprise was officially opened by the First Vice Premier of Georgia, Minister of Economy and Sustainable Development Dimitri Kumsishvili, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Turkey to Georgia Fatma Ceren Yazgan, Consul General of Turkey to Batumi Makbule Kochak and other officials.